Madinah later met the education community in Kelantan which was attended by 80 officers to coordinate the efforts in helping schools that have been affected by the recent floods.

Meanwhile, the Minister of Education II visited the Ministry of Education's Flood War Room located near to the Student Affairs and Development Department of USM Health Campus to have a closer look at the operations carried out there. He also discussed the immediate actions that need to be taken, including the possibility of digging a well to provide clean water supply as well as cleaning up the schools.

This week, several volunteer teams of staff and students from public universities were in Kelantan to assist the various post-flood efforts especially to clean-up the schools before the school session starts next week.

Idris was involved in the discussion and contributed ideas to ensure the smooth operation of the efforts made.

"Think of new ideas, do not wait and keep moving," advised Idris before leaving the campus.

Also present at the War Room were USM Vice-Chancellor, Professor Dato' Dr. Omar Osman; Universiti Malaysia Kelantan (UMK) Vice-Chancellor, Professor Dato' Dr. Mortaza Mohamed; USM Health Campus Director, Professor Dato' Dr. Mafauzy Mohamed; the Kelantan Graduates Association President, Dato' Mohd Faizal bin Daud; and USM and UMK officers.

Idris also handed over contribution to a staff nurse of USM Hospital who lost almost RM20,000 when her rented house was swept away by the floods. - Translation: Siti Faizah Abd Halim/Text & Photo: Mohamad bin Abdullah
